

Title: White Collar Associate
Department: Dispute Resolution & Restructuring
Office: New York or Washington, DC

Position:

Brown Rudnick is currently seeking a junior to mid-level (3-6 years) associate to join its dynamic White Collar Group in New York or Washington DC.

Candidates should have experience with white collar litigation defense matters. Our white collar team advises on regulatory defense matters before the U.S. Department of Justice and Securities and Exchange Commission. We regularly represent companies and individuals alike in fraud investigations, securities matters and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act matters. We have a vibrant investigations and federal and state trial practice including being lead counsel for Mark Cuban in his successful defense of insider trading allegations.

Qualifications:

Candidates must have outstanding academic credentials, and excellent written and verbal communication skills. Comparable law firm experience preferred. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and law school transcript to Molly Childs at employmentopportunities@brownrudnick.com.

Brown Rudnick is an Equal Opportunity Employer